

PPAO January Webinar

Medical Cannabis, What You Need To Know

Presented by: Aurora Medical and Canadian Cannabis Clinics

Aurora Medical and Canadian Cannabis Clinics are inviting the members of the Police Pensioners' Association to a live webinar designed to give you an idea of what medicinal cannabis is, and how it may help your health needs. It will also give you information on how our service works to make the most of your benefits. Whether you are already using medicinal cannabis, or just curious if its right for you and want to know how to get started, our team is here to guide you every step of the way. This live event will take place on January 21st at 3PM (EST). To Register, please click on the below link

Register for January Webinar here

ABOUT the Team

Since 2015, Canadian Cannabis Clinics has been a leading provider of medical cannabis access and education in Canada. With over a decade of experience, the clinic supports patients across the country with safe, reliable, and personalized treatment guidance. The team is dedicated to helping individuals understand their options, feel confident in their care, and move toward Better Days. Megan Dexter is a seasoned educator from Canadian Cannabis Clinics with a background in social services. After discovering the therapeutic benefits of cannabis for her own condition, she transitioned into education and advocacy. Since 2017, she's worked to share the potential of the plant with others by leading a team of educators at the clinic and presenting to diverse audiences across Canada.

Denogh Valentine is the Director of Canadian Cannabis Clinics, with over nine years of experience in medical cannabis care. With a background in medicine, he leads efforts to improve patient access and advance evidence-based cannabis treatment across Canada.

Questions, email the PPAO at info@ppao.ca.